

September was Hunger Action Month; a period when hunger relief organizations like Bounty & Soul were raising awareness of the issues of food insecurity within our community, and recognizing individuals and community partners who joined to create solutions. Bounty & Soul wants to thank everyone who donated to our appeals and especially thank these businesses:

- Native Kitchen and all their customers who ate a Pear & Bleu Panini, the proceeds of which were donated to Bounty & Soul.
- Louise's Kitchen and all their customers who enjoyed Louise's Cakes and AppalaChai, the proceeds of which were donated to Bounty & Soul.
- The Dripolator and their customers who donated generously to support those we serve.
- Dynamite Roasting Company and their customers who donated generously to support those we serve.
- Dr. Deborah Anders, DDS and her patients who donated generously to support those we serve.
- Mellie Mac's Garden Shack and unWINE'd customers who shopped and enjoyed wine.
- Black Mountain Yoga and their clients who donated generously to support those we serve.
- Roots & Fruits Market and their customers who donated generously to support those we serve.
- Black Mountain Natural Foods and their customers who conducted a healthy food drive.
- The Hop West in Asheville who held a fundraising event for Bounty & Soul.
- The Learning Community whose students and staff conducted a healthy food drive.
- GreyBeard Realty donated space in their weekly BM News ad to promote Hunger Action Month.
- Blue Mountain Pizza in Weaverville who designated Bounty & Soul as their Nonprofit of Choice for September.
- iHeartMedia who promoted Hunger Action Month and hunger awareness on all of their morning shows throughout the month; especially to Mark Starling for his strong support.
- Underground Fitness in Asheville for designating Bounty & Soul as their Nonprofit of Choice for August and September.

Addressing the issues surrounding food insecurity and hunger among those who are vulnerable among us truly takes a whole community to create and implement effective solutions. Please join us in supporting these amazing community partners.

On behalf of those whose lives were helped, we offer our most sincere and grateful thanks.
